On September 8, 2017, Defendant filed a motion to compel discovery [Doc. #9], stating that Plaintiff has not responded to interrogatories and document requests, and has not provided a date for her deposition.

Van Dyke Public Schools*, 2010 WL 259053, *2 (E.D. Mich. 2010); Fed.R.Civ.P. 34(b). Therefore, this motion is deemed unopposed.

Accordingly, Defendant's motion to compel [Doc. #9] is GRANTED.¹

No later than 21 days from the date of this Order, Plaintiff will serve responses to Defendant's First Set of Interrogatories and Requests for Production of Documents, and sign and return to Defendant's counsel the requested authorizations for release of medical Discovery is extended 30 days from the date of this Order, solely for the purpose of compliance with this Order.

Pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 37(a)(5), Plaintiff will pay Defendant's attorney in the amount of $500.00.²

Plaintiff's failure to comply with this Order or with other discovery orders or proper discovery requests may result in additional sanctions, including dismissal of the complaint.

² Rule 37(a)(5) provides that where a party fails to answer discovery requests, and a motion to compel is granted, "the court must, after giving an opportunity to be heard, require the party...to pay the movant's reasonable attorney's fees." Plaintiff had the opportunity to be heard by filing a response to the Defendant's motion (which included a request for attorney fees), but did not do so.
